

Green Bay Press-Gazette

FRIDAY, January 7, 1994

35¢

La Violette steps down at St. Norbert

After 35 years of coaching football in area, he says he's ready to retire

Assaults elsewhere don't raise Packers concerns

Team officials said they have always taken safety precautions for all involved

By Thomas Costant and Anne Klemm

Assaults of two professional athletes at sporting events is less than a year's worth of Green Bay Packers safety concerns, team officials said today.

size in Detroit followed the stabbing last spring of tennis star Monica Seles during a tournament match in Germany. It's tough for me to compare the two football teams... with an individual athlete, whether it be a player or a referee, or a fan." Packers president Bill Harlan said today.

"We always have security. We try to cover it as thoroughly as we can," Harlan said. "That is an ongoing consideration (that) is not really changed by incidents that happen in other sports." Aulisio said. "We're certainly aware of what has happened. It makes everybody a little more alert."

Are you excited? Let us know

It's been a good year for football in Wisconsin. The Wisconsin Badgers generated lots of excitement on their way to a Rose Bowl victory. The Green Bay Packers are in the playoffs for the first time since 1972. So, please, use Saturday's Packers playoff game with the Detroit Lions as an opportunity to let us know how excited you are about the Packers! And why? Please call the Press-Gazette's hotline from 4 to 6 p.m. today to tell us. The numbers 436-7838 and 436-7839 only. 1001 N. Lincoln and 1001 S. Lincoln outside the local calling areas. They're free calls. When you call, listen for the instructions. Use voice your comments. A selection of your views will run in Saturday's paper.

Still coming down

Snow cover: Lois Dart of Green Bay uses an umbrella to keep the snow off as she takes a walk Thursday along Newberry Avenue in Green Bay. White shovellers and plow operators are less than ecstatic; skiers are enjoying the 10.5 inches of snow that have fallen since Wednesday. More is on the way today and Saturday.

Some see green in new-fallen white

This week's snowfall perks up winter sports businesses, tires area road crews

By Tom Murphy and Kathy Shroyer

Skiers get a kick out of their hearts' content this weekend. As they do, municipal road maintenance crews may get a bit of red before more snow arrives requires their attention.

inches that have fallen since Wednesday. Down County's 46-person highway crew worked most of night Thursday and was back out at 4 a.m. today, said highway commissioner Roger Kahl.

"I'm really Newport state park conditions are reported very good on the snow on or eight miles. They're perfect. Close to home, the 16 miles of trails at the Brown County Reformation Camp were rolled and packed Thursday, and work director Mike McFarland said.

Most bay PCBs are from Fox

A study said it puts more into the bay than 4 other rivers combined

By Terry Anderson and Thomas Costant

Press-Gazette

More PCBs are entering Green Bay from the Fox River than the other four major rivers combined, a new federal study shows.

PCB levels highest in the Fox River. Sampling sites are marked with red dots.

Authorities disagree on how much PCB exposure is unsafe for animals and people. People disagree which Fox long have known that as the most industrialized ever flowing into the bay, it is the most likely source of industrial pollutants like PCBs.

Staggered school times proposed

Flexible schedules could be an alternative to new building projects

By Jeff Hultshausen

Parents to get longer permission to borrow money for new school buildings may force Green Bay to find cheaper ways to solve class-room crowding.

tract estimates. Three of the four high schools — East, West and DeWitt — are starting to have space problems.

tion Association, said the district would have to bargain the wheeling changes with the teachers' union.

White House puts its spin on Whitewater

Clinton's a coward, says Russian extremist

A-2

The supercomputer will help determine what are the most cost-effective solutions. "We don't want to invest public or private money in actions that won't help lead to resolution," Grandeur said.

Up-front

SECTION A	SECTION C
■ Newsman A-2	■ Sports C-1
■ Sportsman A-3	■ Sports on TV C-4
■ Forum A-4	■ Calendar C-1
■ October A-4	SECTION D
■ Opinion A-5	■ Calendar C-1
■ Comics D-4	■ TV D-4
■ Local news B-1	■ Movies D-4
■ Sports B-4	■ A Gazette member
■ Sports on TV B-4	■ Copyright 1994 Green Bay Press-Gazette
■ Money B-5
■ Weather B-6

First briefing

■ Remo decides: Attorney General Janet Reno decided to seek a court-appointed independent counsel to investigate President Clinton's role in an Arkansas real estate venture as soon as Congress passes a new ethics law. The New York Times reported today.

■ Court-appointed counsel could reach re-investigation of Clinton's activities during and after Whitewater Development Co. Reached story on A-5.

Coming Saturday

■ Literati: ready New Hispanic levels to the water of local communities is becoming a growing concern.

Gore likes Badgers

■ President Bill Clinton likes the Green Bay Packers. He said today that he was "impressed" by the team's performance in the playoffs.

■ Clinton's a coward, says Russian extremist

■ A-3