

▶What's Inside About 50 people opposed to mining turned out to a hearing on proposed environmental rule changes.

Green Bay Press Gazette # 4 Comments? Call the Metro Desk, (414) 431-6346

News today from: Oconto County Brown County

Local/State SECTION B Tribe outraged by EPA 'politics'

Withdrawal of water control status ripped By Susan Campbell Press-Gazette The Ojibwa Tribe of Indiana is 'outraged' at the federal government's withdrawal of agreement that allowed the tribe to set water quality standards on the reservation.

Two killed in two-vehicle crash Two people were killed and a baby was injured in a two-vehicle crash Wednesday afternoon near Oconto Falls.

Brown County Stabbing suspects will stand trial Two suspects charged in connection with the stabbing death of Jeff Neuch will stand trial, a Brown County court commissioner said Friday.

Smelling the flowers: Kathleen Mitchell, 9, Green Bay, enjoys a sunny day Wednesday by stopping to smell the tulips in Jackson Square on her way home from Howe Elementary School in Green Bay.

Public gets update on Fox River cleanup Bail set at $50,000 for man tied to shooting

By Susan Campbell Press-Gazette More than 100 people attended a meeting Wednesday night to ask questions of federal officials planning a massive cleanup of the Fox River. Questions ranged from how long the cleanup would take and how much it would cost, to the impact of river contaminants on human health and the state's agriculture that has threatened to delay the project.

By Andy Nelson Press-Gazette A Brown County court commissioner set bail at $50,000 for a 29-year-old Green Bay man detained before trial in the shooting of Vincent Kelly, 1428 Donovan St., on Sunday.

A quick glance at Memorial Day events in the area

- Celebrations and observances: Celebration 1997: Saturday Morning, Voyageur Park, De Pere. Football, music, children's activities, petting zoo and entertainment.
Pineville, 8:30 a.m. - Saturday Kewaunee Club Memorial Day Picnic 10 a.m. Monday.