

Green Bay Press-Gazette

★ FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1999

Trojans basketball team No. 1 in state. The Southwest boys basketball team is proving it is the best in the state, a rarity for area teams. C-1

50 CENTS

INSIDE

Wife heads dealership

Yvonne Howell took over Bay City Chrysler Plymouth when her husband died of cancer in November. A-5

Green gets $350,000 in PAC, other funds

WASHINGTON — Incumbent congressmen traditionally have an edge in campaign contributions from political action committees.

But local bishops travel to St. Louis for his visit

By Paul Secras

If you hoped to see Pope John Paul II in St. Louis next week, you probably were disappointed.

Deadbeat dad gets prison term

Lawyer says support for kids ruled out

By Miss Hearty

Senators preparing questions

WASHINGTON — Senators are preparing written questions for White House lawyers and House prosecutors as President Clinton's impeachment trial, possibly the last act of bipartisan cooperation in a decade, nears.

PCB hot spot

With no local landfill to accept high-level PCB contaminants from the Fox River, the scope of a pilot dredging project planned outside that state's West Mill this spring may have to be cut severely.

ShopKo CEO announces his retirement

Kramer to remain as board chair

By Thomas Convent

almost $1 billion company will retire Friday, March 22. "It's been a great run," Kramer said as he reflected on his decision to end 28 years with the company he has led since 1981.

Podany brings years of experience. A-2 will have 100 more stretching from the Green Lakes to the Pacific Ocean. Shopko is Brown County's sixth largest employer, with 2,500 employees here and 10,000 nationwide.

Few blessed with pope tickets

Newspaper vendor Valente Alvarez sells newspapers and photos of Pope John Paul II in downtown Mexico City on Thursday. Mexicans are preparing for the arrival of the pope, who is making his fourth visit to Mexico today.

Senators preparing questions

WASHINGTON — Senators are preparing written questions for White House lawyers and House prosecutors as President Clinton's impeachment trial, possibly the last act of bipartisan cooperation in a decade, nears.

Clinton in crisis

More on A-2

As the impeachment trial nears, the president's popularity continues to soar while the GOP's call for witnesses could extend the trial that — according to polls — is widely expected.

But local bishops travel to St. Louis for his visit

By Paul Secras

Matthew Livingston of Oak Brook, who is one of just a handful of the bishops who will accompany the pope to St. Louis, will attend a Mass the pope will celebrate Wednesday in St. Louis.

Dredging project faces downsizing

By Susan Czupura

With no local landfill to accept high-level PCB contaminants from the Fox River, the scope of a pilot dredging project planned outside that state's West Mill this spring may have to be cut severely.

PCB hot spot

With no local landfill to accept high-level PCB contaminants from the Fox River, the scope of a pilot dredging project planned outside that state's West Mill this spring may have to be cut severely.

Dredging project faces downsizing

With no local landfill to accept high-level PCB contaminants from the Fox River, the scope of a pilot dredging project planned outside that state's West Mill this spring may have to be cut severely.

WEATHER 36 33 INDEX

INDEX

A-2 • FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1999 • GREEN BAY PRESS-GAZETTE

CLINTON IN CRISIS

Sens. Kohl, Feingold say they're undecided on vote

Impeaching President Clinton... President Clinton is being tried in the Senate for an act of adultery and obstructing justice...

MILWAUKEE — Wisconsin's two U.S. senators said Thursday they haven't decided whether to impeach President Clinton...

Major questions remain about the nation's history... Clinton's charges against the president...

Clinton's charges against the president... whether to impeach Clinton...

Clinton's charges against the president... whether to impeach Clinton...

Clinton's charges against the president... whether to impeach Clinton...

Clinton's charges against the president... whether to impeach Clinton...

Clinton's charges against the president... whether to impeach Clinton...

Clinton's charges against the president... whether to impeach Clinton...

Quayle says he will enter GOP race for the presidency

Quayle says he will enter GOP race for the presidency... A year before the first presidential election...

Quayle says he will enter GOP race for the presidency... A year before the first presidential election...

Senate faces decision on calling witnesses

Senate faces decision on calling witnesses... The decision will come right after senators consider whether to demand hearing witnesses...

Senate faces decision on calling witnesses... The decision will come right after senators consider whether to demand hearing witnesses...

Douglas leads charge to restore playgrounds

Douglas leads charge to restore playgrounds... LOS ANGELES — It's going to be a long fight to get playgrounds for 50,000 children...

Douglas leads charge to restore playgrounds... LOS ANGELES — It's going to be a long fight to get playgrounds for 50,000 children...

Pope/Area bishops will travel to St. Louis

Pope/Area bishops will travel to St. Louis... The pope and his entourage will arrive in St. Louis on Tuesday...

Pope/Area bishops will travel to St. Louis... The pope and his entourage will arrive in St. Louis on Tuesday...

Correction... LIFESTYLE: A story Wednesday incorrectly said a free prescription...

Dredge/Project questioned

Dredge/Project questioned... The project to dredge the Fox River will cost $100 million...

Dredge/Project questioned... The project to dredge the Fox River will cost $100 million...

PCB-tainted soil needs disposal site

PCB-tainted soil needs disposal site... Brown County Executive Nancy Nussbaum said the county has a solution for disposing of the PCB-tainted soil...

PCB-tainted soil needs disposal site... Brown County Executive Nancy Nussbaum said the county has a solution for disposing of the PCB-tainted soil...

Expansive road increase

Expansive road increase... The state will increase the size of the road bed for the Fox River project...

Expansive road increase... The state will increase the size of the road bed for the Fox River project...

Advertising

Advertising... Classified advertising rates and contact information for the Press-Gazette.