

Green Bay Press-Gazette FIRST EDITION

Boss' comeback worth the wait Milwaukee will be the 'Lucky Town' when Bruce Springsteen and E Street Band...

INSIDE Packers go back to basics Coach Ray Rhodes is directing the Packers back to the basics of the West Coast offense this week. C-1

Last-minute letter opposed WDP plan

Area leaders sent note to constituents The next time West De Pere school officials plan a referendum, they are likely to be involved in the process. Voters Tuesday narrowly rejected a request to renovate and add to three of the district's four schools...

Land concerns The 40-acre parcel of land that the West De Pere School District was considering buying was the subject of a letter sent out to residents a week before Tuesday's final election. The letter stated that the school district would be buying the land to use as a site for a new school building...

Committee votes may change jail plan By Joan Dirko De Pere Gazette

Dredging project might meet only half of its goal

The project to dredge PCBs from the Fox River is behind schedule, and it appears only about half of the sediment slated for removal from the river will be taken out by the time cold weather forces closure of the project.

Drug costs outpacing inflation

Group says seniors having trouble affording medicine The Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America said the drug industry plans to increase its research and development spending by 10 percent next year...

A Brown County committee made a decision on Tuesday to change the course of the county jail project. The County Board's Public Safety Committee voted to change the jail's location from the site of the old jail to a new site...

Time, money limit amount of sediment removed

To finish the job in spring, project managers for paper mills and the state Department of Natural Resources announced Wednesday. Mark Travers, of the environmental consulting firm GeoMax Inc., estimated that 40,000 cubic yards of contaminated sediment could be removed from the river before it freezes...

WASHINGTON - Prices for the drug older Americans use most often have been soaring for more than four times higher than in 1994, according to a study by the industry group that says seniors are having trouble affording medicine...

WASHINGTON - The 1998 economic output of the Green Bay metropolitan area ranked ahead of other metropolitan areas such as Jordan and Bolivia, states a report issued Wednesday by the U.S. Conference of Mayors and National Association of Counties.

Area's economy outranks those of Bolivia, Jordan

The $4.4 billion in goods and services produced in the Green Bay area last year ranked ahead of other metropolitan areas such as Jordan and Bolivia, states a report issued Wednesday by the U.S. Conference of Mayors and National Association of Counties.

SEATTLE - A man in camouflage clothing and sunglasses fatally shot and died four employees at a retail "ranger" company Wednesday, killing two of them. The attack came a day after a deadly workplace shooting in Miami.

Shooter kills two in Seattle, still at large

SEATTLE - A man in camouflage clothing and sunglasses fatally shot and died four employees at a retail "ranger" company Wednesday, killing two of them. The attack came a day after a deadly workplace shooting in Miami.

Suspect's motive unknown in workplace shooting in Honolulu, A-4

Multiple shootings at Honolulu shipyard building killed a man and injured a woman. The Honolulu Police Department is searching for a suspect in the shooting.

WEATHER 57/37 Mostly sunny and warmer. INDEX: Lotteries B-1, Comics B-1, Sports B-1, etc.

A-2 •• THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1999 GREEN BAY PRESS-GAZETTE

FIRST EDITION

Remembering the images that shaped the past 100 years

Millennium Moment

The 'Great Smog' of 1938
This photograph records "foggy conditions" at 10 a.m. in downtown Pittsburgh on Jan. 22, 1938, as foggy mist in the air from the confluence of Liberty and Fifth avenues on the first day of the "Great Smog" of 1938. Coal fires at steel factories in the pre-World War II years led to high levels of pollution. (Associated Press/Pittsburgh Post-Gazette)

Report outlines economic roles of metro areas

Cities account for 84 percent of nation's economic activity

WASHINGTON — Metropolitan areas accounted for 84 percent of the nation's economic activity last year, a full percentage point higher than a year earlier, says a report issued Wednesday by the U.S. Conference of Mayors and the National Association of Counties.

The Cincinnati area produced more economic activity than the entire states of Nebraska and West Virginia, while Louisville, Tenn., and Rochester, N.Y., surpassed Michigan. The report also ranked the nation's 100 largest metropolitan areas by economic activity.

The information also ranked the nation's 100 largest metropolitan areas by economic activity last year. The information also ranked the nation's 100 largest metropolitan areas by economic activity last year.

Powell tells students to finish their education

Students urged to finish their education

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Colin Powell urged a group of high school freshmen to fight for their right to an education.

No matter what else happens, you've got to finish high school, Powell said. He addressed a group of 500 students at Pearl-Cohn Comprehensive High School.

Powell said he expects to see more young people in the workforce than ever before. He urged students to finish their education to be competitive in the job market.

Kinkel's note includes apology for murders

EUGENE, Ore. — In the note that Rip Kinkel left in a living room after he killed his parents, he apologized for shooting them, but the notes in his hand suggest that he believed he would be killed but had been spared.

"I love my Mom and Dad so much," McCann read from the note. "I just got two felonies on my record. It would destroy them."

The note was found in a living room after the shooting. Kinkel was 17 years old at the time. He was charged with the murders of his parents, Robert and Patricia Kinkel, in 1997.

Flight 990 dove, then climbed before crash, analysis shows

Weather delays recovery efforts until weekend

NEWPORT, R.I. — EgyptAir Flight 990 dove 17,000 feet and then climbed again, before spiraling into the sea, according to a report issued Wednesday by the National Transportation Safety Board.

The report says the plane did not go into a steep climb until after it was 10,000 feet above the water. The plane then dove to 10,000 feet before climbing back up to 17,000 feet.

Goal/Project has been plagued by setbacks

Those mills ought to step forward and come up with the cash needed to clean up that hot spot.

They cannot leave the most contaminated site in the river half-done, or one-third done.

Those mills ought to step forward and come up with the cash needed to clean up that hot spot. They cannot leave the most contaminated site in the river half-done, or one-third done.

Letter/Annexation concerned Lawrence

Lawrence said communication with all the municipalities will be key when the district plans another referendum.

He said he would like to see a referendum on whether the city should be annexed to the district.

Correction policy

The Press-Gazette corrects factual errors promptly and courteously if you have a correction or clarification, please call the metro desk at 431-6366.

Press-Gazette

431-6366 • P.O. Box 1880
Green Bay, Wis. 54302
Business hours: 7:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m.
Weekdays • 9:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturdays

Main office: (920) 431-4411 or (920) 444-0007

Editor: James J. Hagan
President and publisher: Carl A. Hagan
Advertising director: Douglas C. Miller
Business manager: John A. Hagan
Circulation manager: Tom A. Hagan
Human resources director: 431-6328